BLAISE KOLODYCHUK'S

NANDI BEAR ENEMIES

#20

The four heroes finally reach their destination: Animole World! But it looks as if they have already run into trouble, before they have even landed!

BLAISE KOLODYCHUK PRESENTS: NANDI BEAR TENANTS

I AM BILLY, AN AUTOMATED GREETING-BOT. WELCOME TO ANIMOLE WORLD. PLEASE TRANSMIT YOUR CLEARANCE FROM THE ANIMOLE WORLD GOVERNMENT.

We don't have any clearance, we are here to rescue our friend Naiad!

UNFORTUNATELY WITHOUT CLEARANCE YOU ARE NOT PERMITTED TO COME OR GO FROM OUR PLANET. YOU HAVE 3 SECONDS TO LEAVE YOUR ORBIT.

3 seconds? 3 seconds until what?

I don't know but we need to get down there!

Hold on guys, I'll try to fly around this thing!

WHOSHHHH

Stensor flies past the robot ship and immediately gets shot down!

BOOM!

Oh man, I wasn't expecting that!

Stensor, we are falling fast towards the planet!

Everyone buckle in, Stensor can you blast a hole in the window as soon a we reach the atmosphere?

Sure, but is that going to help?

I got an idea!

Stensor blasts a small hole in the windshield.

As they hurtle towards the planet Raca starts spewing her goo out the front of the ship!

Nice work Raca! You just saved our skins!

Glad to help. And glad to be alive! Now let's get out of this shuttle before it explodes or something!

Eventually creating a lovely soft landing for our previously doomed heroes!

Soon our team of rescuers makes their way from the ship to the edge of a cliff overlooking a vast green world.

It's so beautiful! Where do we go to find Naiad?

Looks like she is somewhere in that direction. Past the hills.

Looks like there is something coming over those hills, actually a lot of something... what is that?

There are so many...

Stensor, use your Electric Eye to zoom in and see what that is coming our way.

Yeah, good plan...

this doesn't look good.

What is it?

It is hundreds of Army Ants, and they are between us and Naiad!

Meanwhile Baby Mega Boy Electric and Sunny are waiting behind the Alpine Steak and Lounge, with their trusty videographer Klor, who is live streaming the entire event to the world!

Okay guys just act natural.

How else am I supposed to act?

Un-Natural I guess. When is this Zor guy supposed to show up?

Maybe he's going to be fashionably late and show up in a very nice suit.

No suit, but I am extremely handsome.

You are a villainous robot bank robber!!

Yes, all true, but I maintain what I said.

Well, are you here to give up, or are you here to fight?

Take a wild guess!

BLAM!

Just surrender, Zor! It will save us a ton of time!

What are you, scared?

BOOM!

Zor shoots another beam at Oliver who shoots his own tiny stream of electricity at Zor.

ZAP!

Ahh, clever, you concentrated your electrical powers to damage instead of give me more power. I'm impressed.

Sunny flies up and shoots him with a blast of fire!

Zor deflects the flames towards Oliver. who gets a little cooked!

Sunny! Be careful!

Not my fault!

This is actually just a waste of my time. I thought showing up here would show the world how powerful I am on YouTube. But I fear it is just making me look like a bully.

Why don't you tell us why you need all that money?

Yeah, give us some answers, sucka!

Zor shoots them with a force-field bubble!

That, my dear friends, is a surprise. For the whole world!

Let us out of this force-field, you maniac!

No. I'm outta here.

See ya round, Nandi Bear Toddlers!

Well this is great. Defeated again live on YouTube. Here, if I concentrate my electrical energy just right, I may be able to pop these force fields... There.

POP!

I guess we are out of options. I guess we really do have to call one of those names on the refrigerator.

Maybe the Mosquito?

You're right Sunny. Man are we over our heads... if only we knew where his secret lair was.

You mean like if you put a tracking device on him before he left, then you could follow him to his secret hideout?

Exactly.

Well I got good news and bad news. The good news is I secretly attached a tracking device to Zor as soon as he arrived.

That's amazing! Thank you so much Klor! What's the bad news?

You guys still look like total amateurs on my live stream.

Back in Naiad Bear's nightmare world, she is in trouble!

I SHOULD HAVE COME IN HERE MYSELF IN THE FIRST PLACE. FLOYD DOESN'T KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT YOU.. LIKE YOUR FEAR OF DROWNING!

You are such a horrible man! Let me out of here! Please!

I WOULD LOVE TO, AS SOON AS YOU TELL ME WHERE I CAN FIND THE AMULET OF DANIEL!

Super Punk! Or should I call you Suppiah, your true name! Please! I don't want to drown!

WELL YOU KNOW WHAT TO DO.

Meanwhile back on the island Sgt. Stripe is having a dilemma of his own...

Was I a hero? What is going on here? I don't want to hurt anyone.. Why am I doing this? What's going on here?

And back to the diabolical tent of mental manipulation...

Floyd is having a

Sgt. Stripe is resisting my mind control! Super Punk better hurry up or I will lose control over the nightmare world! This is way too much psychic power to expect from one bird!

Back to Super Punk and Naiad...

Fine! Fine! The Amulet of Daniel is in an inter-dimensional lock box! Now let me out!

GOOD START, BUT WHERE DO I FIND THE COSMIC KEY TO OPEN IT? YOU DON'T HAVE IT, I WOULD HAVE FOUND IT.

And with her final terrified breath...

BROTHERRR.

Ahh.. Galaxy.
